

Customers wishing to download their bank statements in PDF format can do so with our easy-to-follow guide. Below are the instructions for performing this task with most of the current account providers in the UK.

To view PDF files, you will need an application such as Adobe Reader. You can download this free program here.

BANK OF IRELAND

An electronic statement will be automatically displayed as a PDF. Customers can download their eStatement by selecting either 'Print' or 'Save a copy' from the toolbar or from the 'File' menu.

COUTTS

Log in to your online banking. Select Statements from the toolbar and the required account.

Select 'Download' at the bottom corner of the screen, and choose PDF as the desired format.

BARCLAYS

Customers need to be registered for online statements in order to view them online. Once you have registered, you can access PDF statements by selecting an account from the online banking homepage and selecting the 'Statements' tab from the summary page.

THE CO-OPERATIVE BANK

Log in to your online banking. Select Statements from the left menu and the required account.

Select a statement number, followed by 'Print' at the top. Now, right-click your statement and choose to save as a PDF.

A full demonstration is available at Barclays.

BANK OF SCOTLAND

Once you have logged in, select the account you wish to view.

Select 'Print' at the bottom of the screen to open a print view. Now select 'Save as PDF' to complete the download.
